Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Debates That Made History: The Story of Alexander Campbell s Debates With Rev. John Walker, Rev. W. L. McCalla, Mr. Robert Owen, Bishop Purcell and Rev. Nathan L. Rice This book is an analytic story of five religious debates held in Ohio and Kentucky about a century ago. They traverse a wide range of topics and cover practically all the disputed points between the different Protestant bodies, the contentions between materialism and Christianity and the divergent issues between Roman Catholicism and Protestantism. The century that has elapsed since they agitated the religious folk has seen many changes in religious thought. The point of view has shifted from the ecclesiastical and philosophical to the scientific and social. New sects have been born and grown to strength and others have risen only to die. The Christian horizons have been enlarged from township scope to world inclusions, but the principles of these debates have not been outgrown nor become obsolete. It is believed that these discussions have a mission to this age of rather loose religious thinking and statement. Whatever could be said, pro and con, on the contested ideas was stated by men of learning, character, spirituality and forensic ability. These debates commanded the attention of the leaders of their day both in the religious and political spheres. They strengthened the love of the truth and fired the passion to place Church and State on foundations in which no flaws could be found, which would stand the utmost hammering of their bitterest foes. They also hastened rather than retarded Christian union. After they were over men understood Christianity better than before and realized that with all their...
