My Dear Archbishop, - The Secretary of the Interior of the United States kindly promised to send you from Washington a copy of the last report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and of the Superintendent of Indian Schools. I trust that these have been received by you, and that amongst your many and important avocations you will be able to peruse them. They are of great interest and most helpful to all engaged, as you are, in considering the true solution of the Indian questions that are now claiming most earnest attention in our land. It is at the same time, humiliating to learn how much higher the standard of the United States in these matters, is than that set by us; and to read of the high ideal that is presented by the department up to which their officials are to live, and the diligence with which it insists that they should fulfil the obligations that are cast upon them. It is impossible to procure enough of these pamphlets to make a general distribution among those whom it would be well to educate, and are interested in Indian Affairs. I thought it well to make some extracts from the many valuable statements that are found and to have them printed and circulated. I trust you will approve of this action, and that you will accept of 100...
