Reviews

This is the finest book i have got go through right up until now. I have got read and i also am confident that i am going to planning to read once again yet again in the future. You will not truly feel monotony at at any time of the time (that's what catalogs are for about if you check with me).

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Stories weaving music and passion for three young women, lost in life and looking for love - or just a little fun. In Dragonfly Dance, Lori Littlehawk is a fiddle player filling the South Dakota skies with tunes at the annual Dragonfly Dance. Recently betrayed by her fiancé, she is determined to make this year's dance an experience like none other. In Rhythm of the Rain, Annalee Wells is stalled. She runs a pet grooming salon and mourns the passing of her father. When Tango Petit and his affable golden retriever enter her salon, her heart beats a forgotten rhythm. When he offers her a chance to play the drums in the famous Blue Devils, she feels alive again and ready to pursue old dreams and new passions. And delicate Yarrow Panesh, a cellist in the Chicago symphony. She's lived her life in pianissimo, and she's tired of it. Gavin Guevara literally runs her down with his bicycle, but the collision does far more than jolt her small frame. It emboldens her for a new phase of her life - her Crescendo begins.
