Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Credit: Its Meaning and Moment The following article is condensed from an essay prepared and published by Mr. Clark W.Bryan, of Holyoke, Mass., in The Paper World and The Manufacturer, of which he is the editor and proprietor. It reflects the impressions of a competent and critical observer, who has taken the time to gain an insight into the character and workings of an institution of which the general public know but little except in the abstract. It is reproduced as one of the best word illustrations of the business which has recently appeared, and will repay a perusal by all who have an interest in the working and management of a Mercantile Agency.
