Don't Flush: Lifting the Lid on the Science of Poo and Wee (Hardback)

By Richard Platt, Mary Platt

Pan MacMillan, United Kingdom, 2012. Hardback. Book Condition: New. John Kelly (illustrator). Illustrated edition. 262 x 236 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book is a light-hearted, yet highly informative study of two of the most natural human resources in the world -- poo and wee. Throughout history, the products of our bladder and bowels have helped us to build houses, wash and dye our clothes, fertilize crops, treat illnesses, solve crimes, control pollution and create fuel, energy and explosives. These pages show you how, and tell you some fascinating stories at the same time. Illustrated with brilliantly fun artworks and endearing characters, you'll be entertained by wizards using magical urine, soldiers fighting with exploding piles of dung, wee-wielding beauty therapists and much more.

The ideal ebook i possibly study. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
