You think youve been through things no one should have to go through Well, Ive felt things no one should have to feel. People told me at 23 years old, You are a vision of strength. You have wisdom beyond your years. But the truth is I have two faces. One is the mask they see. The other is in this book. The one thing that connects them is also the one thing that hides my weaknesses. All of my secrets lie in my waterproof mascara. Chanceys whole life has been a struggle of whether or not her father is her mothers killer. Its been a game, like tug of war. Her father against her mothers side of my family, she was the rope. Growing up being bounced from house to house experiencing hate and emotional abuse, Chancey is forced to decide whose side shes on. Until she is old enough to piece the pieces together of stories shes been told about what really happened that night, from everyone shes been raised by. The pieces to the mystery all point in...
